Why did you enter the Red Rose Awards?

The Red Rose Awards are extremely reputable and entering the awards gives us the ability to market our brand, benchmark our business from a different perspective and compare ourselves against competitors. To win an award like this would increase our credibility and motivate our staff.

How did you find the online entry process and judging process?

The online entry was very user friendly and straight forward. The judges were very professional, accommodating and used some great questions to get you thinking.

What was it like to win on the night?

It was an honour to win the award and one of our greatest achievements as a business, that can now never be taken away. Looking around on the night and seeing so many other fantastic companies was a privilege to be part of.

How has your business benefitted from winning the award?

Numerous clients have mentioned our award and congratulated us. We have also used the accolade in our marketing material for 2016/2017.

Do you have any tips / advice / words of encouragement to those companies thinking of entering this year?

Plan and prepare properly for the judges. They are lovely people but also very intelligent professionals. You need to be on your toes!! Make sure you are confident, have belief in what you are presenting. The award is very reputable, so I would encourage any company to enter. To become a finalist is an achievement and can give you exposure. If you do get through to that stage, ensure you shout it from the rooftops.
